

Banking for Communities

2020 Social Impact Annual

Thank you

This past 18 months has been like no other period of time. Together we watched Australia burn, but from the ashes emerged stories of bravery, stoicism and incredible generosity. As a people we demonstrated a willingness to pull together and support one another.

Then, when we thought the worst was over, we faced a global health pandemic. Life as we knew it changed. While many suffered incredible losses, again we stood together for the greater good.

We are a lucky country. We are brave, generous, grateful and supportive. Now more than ever, we understand the bottom line.

People; your family and your community.

We get this

People before profit

As a social enterprise we put people before profit and we always will. That's why we invest our profits in our communities. Every day, with your help, we're making a difference to people's lives. Building stronger communities and helping where help is needed.

How do we do this?

Local social issues

We invest our profits, resources and time into local social issues that matter to our communities. Our team is out there every day helping people live better lives. Despite COVID-19 restrictions we still managed to volunteer 8,447 hours to support community need. Through our social impact loans, grants, educational programs and fundraising efforts we've enabled our community partners to support, build and better serve the community.

The world might be changing, but our support for those in need isn't.

Supporting not-for-profits

Pandemic Relief

AWA Alliance Bank® provided $365,000 in contributions to its philanthropic partners to provide immediate relief during the COVID-19 pandemic.

“While these funds provide short-term relief, we recognise there is a greater need to support each other to rebuild our communities.”

Graeme Scannell, CEO of AWA

Help for the Hunter Region

As the not-for-profit sector faced more challenges than usual, NOVA Alliance Bank® granted a total of $25,000 to the following charities:

Got Your Back Sista works with women and their children experiencing domestic violence.

Soul Café provides free hot meals to the disadvantaged.

The Hunter Breast Cancer Foundation provides support to locals diagnosed with breast cancer.

Connect Ability Australia supports people through connections to family counselling, aged care, and support services for disabled people.

Hunter Melanoma Foundation provides financial support to the Newcastle Melanoma Unit and its patients and their families.

Crowdfunding

In partnership with United Way Glenelg, AWA Alliance Bank® helped raise more than $50,000 through a virtual crowdfunding event that enabled budding social entrepreneurs to pitch for the financial backing they need to get their ideas off the ground.

United Way Glenelg

The Mill House

SERVICE ONE Alliance Bank® is focused on enabling social impact entrepreneurs reach their potential. Its partner, Mill House Ventures, runs a social enterprise accelerator program that aims to grow a quality pipeline of purpose-driven ventures.

Together they have enabled a host of community projects and helped social enterprises become a reality. These include creating micro-forests in community spaces, programs that address domestic violence, health education in remote communities and migrant and refugee support services, to name a few.

Five years of Doing Good

$8,562,620

Our Social Impact

Over five years our community commitment has been central to our purpose. Our total social impact figure includes the Do Good Fund, community investment and volunteering during business hours.

Community Investment $3,063,402

This total figure includes the benefits that people who bank with us share, community programs, micro-financing, fundraising, donations, sponsorship, environmental initiatives and volunteering.

255 Lives

We support the Australian Red Cross Blood Service program, Red 25. Together we rolled-up our sleeves, helping to save 255 lives over the past 18 months.

Community Grant Program

$34,871

In the past 18 months BDCU's Community Partner Program has donated $34,871 to community causes in the NSW Southern Highlands and Tablelands.

The Program includes a My Community Savings account that allows members to nominate and support community partners from a list of registered local charities, community groups, schools and other local organisations. For every $1 of interest earned by members, BDCU donates 15 cents from its own capital to the member's nominated charity.

Volunteering

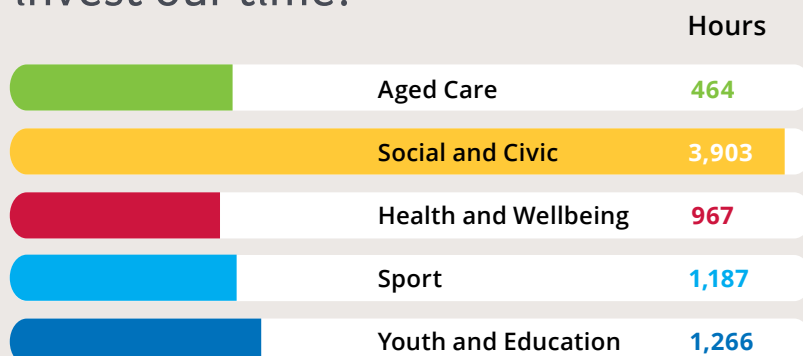

8,447 hours

In a challenging environment our team continued to volunteer their time to support charities, community groups and not-for-profits, some as part of a corporate volunteering program, the rest in their own time. Together we've clocked up 8,447 hours over 18 months. In the last three and a half years the number of volunteering hours has grown to 26,565 hours, that's around 196 hours per team member.

137

We've supported more than 137 local charities, not-for-profits, community groups, clubs, schools and fundraisers.

Where did we invest our time?

Kenshi Candles is a social enterprise that has raised over $50,000 directly funding projects in Australia, Kenya, Sri Lanka, Papua New Guinea and Myanmar. The business works with the Chin refugee community in Melbourne to produce the candles.

Founder, Liam Foldi explains, "As a young person growing up in a wealthy city like Melbourne, I found that most people want to help others, but the hectic demands of life can make it hard to give back regularly. Kenshi is about enabling people that want to make a real difference raise thousands of dollars."

Do Good Community Award

Collin Peebles

Collin Peebles is the CEO of the Geelong Food Relief Centre, a not-for-profit Food Bank that provides emergency food relief to around 37,000 people in the region. The organisation is supported by 90 volunteers and partners with a range of welfare agencies.

The bushfires of last summer and the COVID-19 pandemic has placed greater demand on the Food Bank, so Collin delivered food hampers to those in isolation as far away as Colac. Collin and his team had supported approximately 50,000 people by the end of 2020.

Got Your Back Sista

Got Your Back Sista works with women and their children experiencing domestic violence - many whom are at risk of living below the poverty line. The charity provides a pathway from refuge accommodation to sustainable independent housing and employment.

They aim to provide women with the tools to regain their confidence and the skills they need to be gain confidence and employment. They do this through workshops, a self-defence program, mentoring, re-skilling and providing employment opportunities.

Social purpose in business

Many Alliance Banks are certified B Corporations and accredited Social Traders.

Accredited Social Traders are social enterprises that exist to drive social and environmental change. When people choose to buy from a social enterprise, they are helping break the cycle of disadvantage across Australia.

What a year

As always, thanks to our members, local communities, and community partners. A heartfelt thank you to our brave firefighters, medical teams and contact tracers for your incredible work and sacrifices on the frontline.
